

Architectural drawing showing a detailed site plan of a city block, oriented vertically. The plan includes numerous buildings, streets, and utility lines. A prominent street labeled 'Koblenz' runs horizontally across the middle. The drawing is highly detailed, showing building footprints, internal structures, and a dense network of streets and utility lines. The plan is oriented vertically, with a street labeled 'Koblenz' running horizontally across the middle. The buildings are represented by solid black outlines, and the streets are shown as thin lines. There are also many small circles and other symbols scattered throughout the plan, possibly representing utility lines or specific points of interest. The overall appearance is that of a highly detailed and complex architectural drawing.
